

At Rushey Mead Primary School, we are fantastic at celebrating everyone's differences and making sure everyone feels welcome. Black History Month is time to make sure everyone, from every background takes extra time to learn about Black History.

To deepen our learning about Black History in school, complete as many of the squares as you can! Share your new knowledge with your teachers. If you complete all nine, go and show Mr Odedra or Mrs Watts - bring proof!

Read a book written by a black author. Challenge: write a review of the book to share with your class.	Find out about someone who has been influential in improving the rights of black people in history.	Listen to music by black artists. Can you find older music as well as more modern music?
Find out more about the Black Lives Matter movement.	Research someone who changed history who was black.	Read a story where the main character is black. Challenge: write a review of the book to share with your class.
Create a piece of artwork inspired by black culture.	Make a poster we could use in school inspired by your learning during Black History Month.	Find out more... why have footballers been 'taking the knee'?
